Introduction

Your insurance Policy is evidence of the contract You have made with Us. We insure You during the Period of Insurance in the terms set out under each section of this Policy in return for payment of the premium. Only those sections or sub-sections stated in the Schedule as “Insured” are operative.

Our acceptance of this risk is based upon the information You have presented to Us being a fair presentation of Your Business. You have advised Us of any unusual or special features of Your Business that might cause You any particular concerns.

You must tell Us as soon as possible of any change to the information given on Your Proposal or shown on the Statement of Fact as failure to notify us of changes to Your Business, which means that the information You originally provided no longer represents a fair presentation of the risk, may invalidate the cover. You should not wait until the next renewal date.

Please read this Policy wording and the Schedule carefully. Make sure that they meet Your needs. If You have any queries or any information in the Schedule is incorrect, please contact Your broker.

We will provide the insurance described in this Policy (subject to the terms set out herein) for the Period of Insurance shown in the Schedule and any subsequent period for which You shall pay and We accept the premium.

Rights to Cancel

You may cancel this Policy by giving notice in writing to Your insurance broker:

- A) If You cancel this Policy within 14 days of the start of the Period of Insurance, provided that there have been:
1. no claims made under the Policy for which We have made a payment,
 2. no claims made under the Policy which are still under consideration,
 3. no incidents likely to give rise to a claim that have occurred during the 14-day period that have yet to be reported to Us,

We will give a refund for the proportionate part of the premium paid in respect of the unexpired term of this Policy, subject to Us retaining a minimum premium of £25 to cover Our administration costs.

If a claim has been submitted or there has been any incident likely to give rise to a claim during the current Period of Insurance, no refund for the unexpired portion of the premium will be given.

- B) If You cancel this Policy 15 or more days after the start of the Period of Insurance, no refund for the unexpired portion of the premium will be given.

You have no other rights to cancel the policy

We may cancel:

1. By giving not less than 7 days of notice in writing if any premium due under this Policy has not been paid to Us. If the premium due is paid in full to Us before the notice period expires, the notice of cancellation shall automatically be revoked. If not, the Policy shall automatically terminate at the end of the notice period.

If We cancel, the premium due to Us remains payable for the period that We were on risk. In the event of the occurrence of a loss which gives rise to a claim prior to the date of termination the full premium shall be payable to Us.

2. By giving 30 days of notice in writing to You at Your last known address or Your broker. If We cancel You will be entitled to a proportionate return of premium.

If We cancel under General Condition – Economic Financial or Trade Sanctions no refund of premium will be due to you for the unexpired Period of Insurance

Consequences of Non-Disclosure or Misrepresentation

When agreeing to provide this insurance, We have relied on the accuracy of the information and statements which You have provided to Us.

If You fail to disclose information relevant to Your Policy or You make an incorrect statement to Us and We establish that this is either a deliberate or reckless breach of law, We may terminate the Policy and refuse to pay all claims and need not return any of the premiums paid.

If You fail to disclose information relevant to Your Policy or You make an incorrect statement to Us that is not a deliberate or reckless breach of law:

- a. If We would not have entered into the policy at all, We may terminate the Policy and refuse all claims, but must return the premiums paid;
- b. If We would have entered into the policy, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the policy is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset, if we so require;
- c. If We would have entered into the policy, but would have charged a higher premium, We may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim.

If You are in doubt as to whether any information is relevant to our assessment of Your risk, You should disclose this information to Us.

In order to prevent or detect fraud and money laundering we will check your details with various fraud prevention agencies, who may record a search. Searches may also be made against other insurers' databases. If fraud is suspected, information will be shared with those insurers. Other users of the fraud prevention agencies may use this information in their own decision-making processes.

We may also conduct credit reference checks in certain circumstances. You can find further details in our full privacy policies explaining how the information held by fraud prevention agencies may be used or in which circumstances we conduct credit reference checks and how these checks might affect your credit rating.

Automated Decisions

We may use automated tools with decision making to assess your application for insurance and for claims handling processes, such as price rating tools, flood, theft and subsidence area checks and credit checks.

These automated decisions will produce a result on whether we are able to offer insurance, the appropriate price for your policy or whether we can accept your claim. If you wish to contest an automated decision, you can contact us using the details provided at the end of this page.

International Transfers

Under data protection law, when personal information is being transferred outside the European Economic Area (EEA), we as data controller, are under an obligation to ensure that such transfers are performed in a manner that ensures that your personal information is adequately protected.
